

WHAT THE DICKENS HAVE WE DONE
TO YOUR FAVORITE CHRISTMAS CLASSIC?

A Broadway Christmas Carol

DECEMBER 17-28, 2003

CREATED AND DIRECTED BY

Kathy Feininger

COME SEE OUR PARODY • BROADWAY'S

GREAT MELODIES • TWISTED TO WRAP 'ROUND THE STORY OF SCROOGE.

THERE'S NO TIMID TINY • HE'S BRATTY AND WHINY • WHILE THE SPIRIT OF PRESENTS IS

BOXY AND HUGE. THE MELODIES LINGER • AS SMOLDERING SINGERS ROAST

THIS OLD CHESTNUT WITH CAMPY APLOMB. AND TEARS YOU'LL BE SHEDDING • AS

LYRICS, WE'RE SHREDDING. THREE FINE LOCAL WITS • GIVE THE SPIRITS A TWIST.

• THERE'LL BE BOB CRATCHIT'S TOAST PLUS THE CHANCE OF A GHOST • AND THE

GHOST OF A CHANCE WHEN WE'RE DONE... THAT YOU'LL DANCE OUT

A' RASPING, A FESTIVE AND GASPING:

God help us...everyone!

ORDER TICKETS BY CALLING 240.644.1100

FOR SIX YEARS, THE ROUND HOUSE THEATER HAS BEEN TWISTING THE DICKENS OUT OF

A Broadway Christmas Carol

DECEMBER 17-28, 2003

And Linda Rose Payne, Kevin Reese and Michael Sharp are back this year to give it another wicked turn.

It's the same classic characters. The same well-seasoned story.
The same haunting spirits. All twisted, shaken and stirred into a night that will fill your dreams with laughter.

Take hold of our hems and haw as we carry you through Christmas past, present and future, all set to the tunes you thought you knew and loved. Melodies from Annie to Les Miz, Phantom to Charlie Brown and more. All brilliantly well re-versed!

Don't be a Scrooge! Order your tickets today by calling: 240.644.1100

VISA • MasterCard • Discover • AMEX

The Roundhouse Theater, Bethesda is on East-West Highway, a half-block east of Wisconsin Avenue and of the Metro Red Line, Bethesda station.

www.roundhousetheater.org

KIDS AND TEENS AND TWENTY-SOMETHING'S SAVE BIG:

Under 30? Ask for the Washington Post Young Audiences Ticket. Pay just $10 for any available seat. Any available show.
Ah, the magic of youth!

PO Box 30688
Bethesda, MD 20824-0688

Non-Profit Org
US Postage PAID
Suburban MD
Permit No 3432