

Some citizens have a passion for the news and views of America

If you're one of them, you'll want to keep up with the distinctive new look and bite of The Washington Times National Weekly

It's bold. It's revealing. It's inspiring. And it takes a deeper, more detailed look at America's key issues.

Turn to the National Weekly for exclusive coverage of politics, national security, international affairs and the "culture wars." Expect unrivaled enterprise reporting and investigative journalism.

And reexamine the crucial roles of citizenry, involvement, and debate.

It's the news you need if America is your passion. Whether you're a political pro. Or ... a concerned citizen with an independent mind.
