

THIS YEAR THE MARYLAND TERPS WILL HAVE THE "STUFFS" THAT DREAMS ARE MADE OF.

The highest-ranked college shot blocker in the nation—swattin'. Two of the highest-ranked shot-blocking recruits—bammin'. Two new, massive- yet-mobile power forwards—slammin'. And a first-team Junior College All-American at point guard—here to assist them all. If it sounds like the stuff that dreams are made of . . . it is. But it's gonna' be a nightmare for the other team. And it'll have you screaming . . . for more!

THIS YEAR “BRIANS SONG” WILL BE A MIGHTY JAM!

Whoosh swish wham bam. That's the sound of a basketball getting slammed through a hoop at very high speed. And Brian Williams, Maryland's 6-10 freshman center and a McDonald's high-school All-American, is a master of such memorable jams. This year, he'll be joining a group of Terps that's loaded with talent. And once they get to playin', you'll be on your feet all night!

THIS YEAR A "DERRICK" SWEEPS THE SKY AT COLE!

He's a one-man wrecking crew to opposing offenses. The highest-ranked college shot blocker in the whole U.S. of A. And a pretty prolific scorer to boot. (Second, last year, in the ACC.) He's Derrick Lewis. The senior Terrapin forward who's ready to take up right where he left off—tearin' the visiting team apart in Cole Field House. Block by breathtaking block!
